UNCLE ALBERT'S POSTCARDS

While sifting through the depths of the antique trunk, I unexpectedly stumbled upon a treasure trove of weathered proof sheets that could potentially captivate the attention of historians specializing in circumventing the Multiverse's immigration restrictions on unaccompanied CIS Humanity beyond the conveniently located transit camps at the Stargate Border Communities. This discovery could forever debunk the blatant falsehoods propagated by Ahriman's WEF Goonies and their alliance of eager industrialists such as Billy D'Gated's Acme Heavy Industries or Skynet Labs. These deceitful entities have shamelessly marketed the notion that only by utilizing their cutting-edge Skynet "Transhumanism"

Exoskeleton and the nanobot firmware provided by Acme Heavy Industries, can one artificially manipulate their body's harmonic frequency to deceive the aura scanners at the Multiverse's Stargate

Ports-of-Entry.

Uncle Albert, on the other hand, dedicated his entire life to attaining the traditional, Multiverse-approved method of natural spiritual enlightenment through self-regulation of one's own harmonic frequency.

This arduous journey led him to remote corners of history, where he sought out gurus, scholars from enigmatic Mystery schools, hidden shamans in the depths of the Amazon, and reclusive monks from secret monasteries.

As we have often discussed, his relentless pursuit culminated in achieving level-34 enlightenment, granting him unrestricted passage through most of the lower levels (Spheres) of the Multiverse, and occasional access to the upper spheres, such as the enigmatic Eight Sphere. However, my own research suggests that the Eight Sphere may serve as a holding facility for numerous misfits within the Multiverse, with some renowned scholars likening

it to an old Soviet Gulag or the Multiverse's equivalent of Australia.

Without further ado,
I present to you Uncle
Albert's remarkable collection of postcards, each holding a story waiting to be unveiled.
